

International Day for Biological Diversity (IBD) 2017

On the occasion of IBD, the institute of Wood Science & Technology Bengaluru has celebrated the day by arranging a talk on the theme Biodiversity and Sustainable Tourism. Chief Guest for the function was Dr. U.V. Singh IFS, Chief Executive Officer, Karnataka Medicinal Plant Authority (KAMPA). Dr. Pankaj Kumar Aggarwal, Extension Officer welcomed the participants. The IBD was attended by all the Institute employees. The talk was given by on the topic "Biodiversity and its significance in eco-tourism". He described the main tourism spots in the world and India. He was of the concern that on the name of tourism, we may loose biodiversity of certain areas. Sri. Mohan Karnat, IFS, Group Coordinator (Research) IWST also described the importance of biodiversity day. Dr. Anil Kumar Sethy, Scientist D proposed vote of Thanks.

